The MASS

The three principal parts of the Mass are:

THE OFFERTORY; THE CONSECRATION; THE COMMUNION

It is a mortal sin to miss one of these three parts of Mass on Sunday or Holy Days of Obligation through one's own fault!

* * *

Mass does not begin after the announcements and the reading of the Gospel. Mass begins with the prayers at the foot of the Altar! We are bound under pain of sin to hear one full Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, unless we have a grave excusing cause, such as sickness.

* * *

Therefore we are guilty of at least a venial sin (remember, venial sin is sin!) by willfully coming late for Mass, on Sunday or Holy Days of Obligation or leaving before the Mass is completed. Late means coming after the Priest has begun the prayers at the foot of the Altar!
