ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Note the Church Hall will be locked during Mass times. This is due to intrusion issues by strangers who have taken items inconveniencing parishioners. If you find it necessary to use the Hall for any reason approach an Usher who will unlock the upper deadbolt.
- There is a bad habit of using the restrooms during Holy Mass, even during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the very Canon. This is an abuse and even sinful practice. Attention should be directed to the Mass. Please make restroom calls at home and before Holy Mass or after the priest has departed the sanctuary: after Mass. Parents, please look to your families and direct them to proper attention and attendance to the Sunday obligation.

- Children Catechism classes every Saturday, at 9 A.M.
- Father may receive Mass intentions once more.
- A Parish Gumbo Potluck Picnic is planned for Sunday November 12th. After the 9 AM Mass we will meet nearby at the Normand and Deborah Miller home. Please plan to attend, bring servings and notify Deborah or Jeanine (Billeaud) so that foods are well planned. Activities will be available for the young to enjoy and all should join the occasion!
- Marriage classes and Plans: Couples contemplating marriage must contact Father at least six months before the date of the intended marriage
- Christ the King Lafayette has a new website! Please go to www.ctkinglafayette.com and subscribe to receive CTK content. By subscribing you will receive our latest articles on the Faith, sermons and the bulletin, just to mention a few. In addition, it is now possible to make your donations to Christ the King Lafayette online. Remember that CTK relies on God's providence and your generosity. Thank you and God Bless!
- Adult Catholic instruction and formation classes shall begin September 10th after 9 AM Mass. Instruction will be in preparation for Baptism to Confirmation. Please see Justin Patin for more information. Classes will also be offered on SKYPE for remote learners.
- Please remember in your prayers the sick of the parish as well as the sick friends of Christ the King Church: June Armentor, Bobby Billeaud, Jimmy Broussard, Doris Martin, Angie McCullick & Friend: Rose Gauthier.
- In your plans when necessary and you are unable to attend Mass. Sermons may be listened to on the internet and Holy Mass watched at these sites: sgg.org • Sundays: 7:30 AM, 9 & 11:30 AM & 5:45 PM.
- Wedding Announcements:
 - Ashley Lovell, daughter of Corry and Dawn Lovell of Lafayette, to Brock Nolan, son of Albert and Tonya Nolan, of Lafayette.
 - Jacque Billeaud, son of Eugene and Monique Billeaud of Breaux, to Lauren Taylor Abraham, daughter David and Martha Abraham of Lafayette.
 - Anyone with reasons that these couples may not marry should come forward.

SIGN OF THE CROSS

It is a profession of Faith in the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. It is public and private profession, It is both personal and communal.

It is a symbol of the Mystery of the Trinity that one accepts in faith.

It is a blessing that one invokes upon oneself or anyone that one signs with this sign.

It is acknowledgment of the loving presence of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit who are with us in all ways and in all things.

It is acknowledgment of the death of Christ on the cross as a means of salvation of self and others.

It is a sign of one asking to be placed under the protection of the blessing on the Holy Trinity.

It is a sign of our commitment to Christ.

It is a sign of our commitment to the Roman Catholic Church.

It is a sign of asking a blessing upon our head (mind), our heart (spirit) and our body.

It is an acknowledgment of our desire to live in a loving relationship with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

It is a sign of our intention to enter into prayer or any endeavor in accordance with the will of the Father.

It is a recognition that one is reborn into a new life and a desire to be transformed into a new creation.

It is a sign that one must identify with Christ on the cross so that one may rise with him.

It is an acknowledgment of one's decision to pick up one's cross and follow Jesus.

It is a way of invoking the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit so that one will be open to the gift of grace from them.

It is a sign of one's desire to bless others such as our children or when we hear or observe an accident or when visiting the sick.

It is a sign by which we may recognize Christ's presence in the tabernacle as we pass by the church.

It is an acknowledgment of God as Father, Jesus as the Son and our Brother and of the Holy Spirit as our guide and counselor.

It is a recognition of one's dependence upon God in all one does and says.

It is a sign on one's desire to be protected from sin, temptation and fear.

In making the sign of the Cross we must understand what we are doing and we must make the sign with due care and reverence. We do this not only as a sign of our faith to self, but also as a witness to others of our faith and to our world. It is a sign by which we can give glory to God.

The Sign of the Cross is a profession of Faith in the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit
