ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Note the Church Hall will be locked during Mass times. This is due to intrusion issues by strangers who have taken items inconveniencing parishioners. If you find it necessary to use the Hall for any reason approach an Usher who will unlock the upper deadbolt.
- There is a bad habit of using the restrooms during Holy Mass, even during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the very Canon. This is an abuse and even sinful practice. Parents, please make restroom calls at home and before Holy Mass or after the priest has departed the sanctuary: after Mass. No one should leave their pew during Mass but for sickness or screaming child.
- Children Catechism classes every Saturday, at 9 A.M.

- Father may receive Mass intentions once more.
- A Parish Gumbo Picnic is planned for Sunday November 12th. After the 9 AM Mass we will meet nearby at the Normand and Deborah Miller home. Please plan to attend, bring servings and notify Deborah or Jeanine (Billeaud) so that foods are well planned. Activities will be available for the young to enjoy and all should join the occasion!
- Marriage classes and Plans: Couples contemplating marriage must contact Father at least six months before the date of the intended marriage
- Christ the King Lafayette has a new website! Please go to www.ctkinglafayette.com and subscribe to receive CTK content. By subscribing you will receive our latest articles on the Faith, sermons and the bulletin, just to mention a few. In addition, it is now possible to make your donations to Christ the King Lafayette online. Remember that CTK relies on God's providence and your generosity. Thank you and God Bless!
- Adult Catholic instruction and formation classes shall begin September 10th after 9 AM Mass. Instruction will be in preparation for Baptism to Confirmation. Please see Justin Patin for more information. Classes will also be offered on SKYPE for remote learners.
- Please remember in your prayers the sick of the parish as well as the sick friends of Christ the King Church: June Armentor, Bobby Billeaud, Jimmy Broussard, Doris Martin, Angie McCullick & Friend: Rose Gauthier.
- In your plans when necessary and you are unable to attend Mass. Sermons may be listened to on the internet and Holy Mass watched at these sites: sgg.org • Sundays: 7:30 AM, 9 & 11:30 AM & 5:45 PM.
- Wedding Announcements:
  - Ashley Lovell, daughter of Corry and Dawn Lovell of Lafayette, to Brock Nolan, son of Albert and Tonya Nolan, of Lafayette.
  - Jacque Billeaud, son of Eugene and Monique Billeaud of Breaux, to Lauren Taylor Abraham, daughter David and Martha Abraham of Lafayette.
  - Anyone with reasons that these couples may not marry should come forward.
- The Sacrament of Confirmation will be conferred for candidates prepared Saturday October 28th. Those wishing to receive must approach Fr. Francis or Sr. Tarcisius this week.
- Thanks to the many men who worked so hard Saturday September 30th. Much was accomplished and we owe much to the stout hearts you all showed. May God Reward you! And you who missed this also missed some great cooking at lunch too!

The Duty of Parents to Instruct

“Parents are under grave obligation to see to the religious and moral education of their children...” (Canon Law) The Christian education of your children imposes four duties on you – instruction, vigilance, correction and good example. Instruction, the foundation of the other duties, embraces the duty of teaching them the basics of Christian doctrine (what they are to believe, practice), and that of training them to piety and devotion.

As their reason and judgment develop you should try to explain to them the meaning of the fundamental truths of religion. You may invoke the help of a priest or teacher, but you can never completely shift your burden on to them. No one can convey instruction to your children so efficaciously and with such good results as you, because of your greater authority over them, and because of the facilities afforded you by our ceaseless, intimate contact. Easy and short lessons given opportunely from time to time during your ordinary household occupations will prove much more profitable to your children than extensive instructions received elsewhere. Make it your business to be instructed, both for your own sake and for that of your children. In the meantime, be at least careful to send them to catechism.

Training Their Hearts

The training of the heart should begin from in their tenderest years. Teach them that man's true glory and greatness consist in loving God and observing His commandments. In short, take advantage of every occasion to give them good advice.

This does not mean that you are to weary or repel them by continually preaching. Short observations, a few general maxims naturally suggested by the circumstances of your daily life, will suffice to enable your children to take them in little by little, and to acquire virtuous inclinations.

To these good maxims must be united corresponding practices. You should accustom your children to pray every morning and evening, teaching them certain prayers, habituating them to recite them regularly, while seeing that they properly receive the sacraments according to their age and capacity.

Good principles, once grasped, are never completely forgotten; they may be hidden out of sight under the heat and violence of the passions; but completely destroyed – never. Such principles can hardly fail to excite remorse of conscience, which is often enough to lead back to the right path.

But, if ignorance is found along with vices and bad habits, we may almost say that the evil is almost without a remedy. Such a person's sins without remorse, and without remorse he remains, no matter what the circumstances. What hope can you have of saving him? This single reflection should make you more alive to the importance and the necessity of sparing no pains to lay in the heart of your children the good foundation of Christian knowledge and Christian principles.

Prayer to St. Joseph after the Rosary

Prescribed by Pope Leo XIII to be said after the Rosary during October

TO thee, O Blessed Joseph, * do we have recourse in our tribulation, * and having implored the help of thy thrice-holy spouse, * we confidently invoke thy patronage also. * By that charity wherewith thou wast united to the immaculate Virgin Mother of God, * and by that fatherly affection with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, * we beseech thee and we humbly pray, * that thou wouldst look graciously upon the inheritance which Jesus Christ hath purchased by His Blood, * and assist us in our needs by thy power and strength. * Most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, * protect the chosen people of Jesus Christ; * keep far from us, most loving father, * all blight of error and corruption: * mercifully assist us from heaven, most mighty defender, * in this our conflict with the powers of darkness; * and, even as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus from the supreme peril of His life, * so now defend God's Holy Church * from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; * keep us one and all under thy continual protection, * that we may be supported by thine example and thine assistance, * may be enabled to lead a holy life, * die a happy death, * and come at last to the possession of everlasting blessedness in heaven. * Amen.
