The Church's Duty to Teach Faith and Morals: How is it applied today?

Remember: Thou Shalt Not Do Murder. The application of facts are lost in our day. A nation that aborts 3,000 babies a day & pretends morally superior to slave owners From 200 Years Ago? A nation that buys goods from a slave labor communist China is better than what they decry occurred over 155 years ago? A government that says it's OK for 100 people to be in 17" apart, with cloth masks of dubious quality for a three-hour flight, but it's unacceptable for as few as 11 people to attend a 30-minute daily Mass in a church that seats 2,000. Or, a nation that directs 50 people in a 135 person facility-church for 60 minutes is more dangerous than a store running at 50% capacity all day (and employees there all day) has no rational basis, to say nothing of the national Constitution.

Objective logic is lost in large portions of our society. Poor deforming education has allowed this growth. Marxism thrives in such an environment. And, the key target of all Marxist movements is the Christian church. Karl Marx writes about it at length in the Communist Manifesto. Today, BLM, are following these teachings to the letter. This sick movement has already set churches ablaze. There is no discussion with Marxists; they will burn property for their ideology. Marxist have no belief in objective reality because they believe you make realities. For this reason, they create new and unreal details from thin air. Such unreal details are then fed out to the uncritical public. Marxist want people afraid to go to church for a reason: Faith and Morals would destroy their objective.

Marxist do not want reasoning to be applied, or objective facts of History to color the hysteria that they mean to apply through disinformation. They can stand no measure of critical thinking so none may be allowed. Christianity's reality has survived literally every attempt to be stamped out and those who seek to blot Christ's name or His followers will ultimately come face to face with the Almighty, the great objective reality.

There will be a day when every knee bows and all tongues confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

The Immaculate Heart will triumph. God wins! For who can stop the Lord Almighty?

“Have I then become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

They court you from no good motive but they would estrange you so that you may court them.” (Gal. 4:16-17)
