The Church's Duty is to Teach Faith and Morals: Applied Today?

Last week I wrote: "They do not want reasoning to be applied, or objective facts of History to color the hysteria that they mean to apply thru disinformation." The neo-Marxist barrage applied to the current Virus and BLM, Antifa, etc epidemic demonstrates a constantly changing, politically correct view of everything, but cares nothing for factual information because they do not believe in objective reality. "Truth is the product of culture" they believe and practice. They wish to present us with a few "Enlightened" elites who have the accepted scientific socialism-Marxist position. They are Gnostics with the hidden wisdom of the atheist-materialist ideology. When evidence or reason confronts them facts and rationals are formed to justify their coarse. They create histories to correspond with their goals. Truth and reason cannot be tolerated, so these must be destroyed.

Catholic life is one of "The Way the Truth and the Life". The two, Catholicism and Marxism are set on a collision course. No wonder the Church is an object of great attention. There is no way outside of the Marxist idea. Today many are complicit with the Marxist ideal. There is no truth at all (in their world) and life's purpose is the establishment of Marxism. The human being has no use outside of their goals. Life is cheap: abortion, destroying the bystander in riots, killing the old and all in their way is no problem. The Church knows that history supports the truth when undistorted. Such facts improve man's life. History may not always be what we would like it to be, but it leads to God the Father if we watch for Him. Contrary to what they may say, Catholics are not afraid of history or reason. To be free we have an obligation to know those facts to be conversant in history and reason.

There will be a day when every knee bows and all tongues confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. The Immaculate Heart will triumph. God wins! For who can stop the Lord Almighty?

"Have I then become your enemy because I tell you the truth? They court you from no good motive but they would estrange you, that you may court them." (Gal. 4:16-17)
